TITLE: BE AT PEACE

CAST

Ray – a classmate
Gina – a classmate, a bright student
Anabelle – a classmate, Gina’s friend
Donna - A teacher
A narrator

PROP IDEAS

A certificate
Two tables
Four chairs
Two extra people seated on a table and two chairs, pretending to talk.

SCENE 1

(Narrator: It is a classroom setting. Students are settling in class)

Annabelle: Wow! Congratulations Gina. I can’t believe you got the award for best student of the year.

Gina: Thanks Annabelle. I am grateful to God for the award.

Annabelle: Yes, that’s true. Give yourself some credit – you worked hard too, and you deserve it. Can I see the certificate?

Gina: Sure, here it is (Gina hands over the certificate to Annabelle. Just then, Ray seizes the certificate from Annabelle)

Annabelle: What are you doing?! (Annabelle shouts at Ray)

Ray: (Ray sneers and reads the notes on the certificate) Congratulations Gina Peters, for being the best student of the year. Keep up the excellent work!

SCENE 1 CONTD.

(Ray turns to Gina). Best student? Tell your friend that you cheated – several times, but you were not caught.

Annabelle: You know that's not true. You are just being jealous!

Ray: Jealous you say? I don't think so. And why do you keep sticking out for your friend. Can't she speak for herself?

Annabelle: Just go away and leave us alone!

Ray: Of course! I am leaving now. (He turns to Gina) You will soon get caught, mark my words. (He drops the certificate on the table and walks away).

Annabelle: (turns and whispers to Gina). Tell me the truth. Did you cheat?

Gina: What? Of course not! Don't tell me you believe Ray.

Annabelle: No, I don't believe him. I just wanted to be sure you did the right thing. Oh, Ray. I don't like him at all. He can be so mean and naughty.

Gina: That's alright. I am praying for him. I believe that God will touch his heart someday and he will become the person God wants him to be – a nice and loving person.

Annabelle: Praying for Ray? I will not waste my prayers on him. He doesn't deserve it.

Gina: Oh, come on! We don't deserve God's mercy and forgiveness too. But when we asked Him to forgive us, He forgave us – even with all the bad choices we have made. Everyone deserves God's mercy and forgiveness.

(Teacher Donna overheard the conversation. Just then, she walks in with Ray)

Gina and Annabelle: Hello Teacher Donna

Teacher Donna: Hello Gina. Hello Annabelle. (She turns to Ray). Now, apologize for what you said about Gina.

Ray: Gina, I am sorry for lying that you cheated.

Gina: That's alright. I forgive you.

SCENE 1 CONTD.

Teacher Donna: Good. (Turns to Ray) The next time I see you disturbing these girls, you will be in big trouble. (Turns to Gina and Annabelle) See you later.

Gina and Annabelle: Thank you. Bye. (Teacher Donna and Ray walk away)

Annabelle: (turns to Gina). Wow! I can't believe that!

Gina: Yes, that's amazing! (The two friends hug). We should get going now (they both leave the stage).

Narrator: As you go through life, God is ever near to defend you from evil and keep you from hurt. Trust Him.

The LORD will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace" (Exodus 14:14).

THE END.
