SCENE 1

(Narrator: Michael and Fred slowly walk home, after their classes at school)

Fred: That was a very long class! I am so tired! (yawns)

Michael: Hmn, I quite enjoyed the class. Why are you so tired? Today is Monday.

Fred: Yes, I know. I guess I didn't get enough rest last weekend.

Michael: Yes, I noticed you were looking sleepy in class. You should try and sleep early today, you know?

Fred: Yes, I will. I will.

(The two walk on in brief silence).

Fred: Can I ask you a question?

Michael: Yes, what is it?

Fred: I noticed you haven't been attending any of the weekend parties and sleepovers you used to attend. Don't you get invited anymore?

Michael: (smiles). Oh, that. I still get invitations, but I chose not to attend anymore.

Fred: Why? Is it because of Joe? I don't like his attitude. He can be so annoying at times.

SCENE 1 CONTD.

Michael: No, it's not because of Joe. I don't have any problems with him. I met a new friend and have been spending time with Him a lot lately. So, you see, I simply don't have time to attend.

Fred: Do you mean Jesus is the new friend?

Michael: That's correct.

Fred: Come on Michael. I remember you told me this some months ago. That you met a new friend, Jesus. So, all you do now is read the bible, pray, and go to church? That's such a boring life! And Jesus tells you to keep away from your other friends too?

Michael: No, Fred. It's not exactly how you have said it.

Fred: OK, explain to me

Michael: You see, since I accepted Jesus into my heart as my personal Lord and Saviour, I have no desire for the things I used to do before, or the places I used to go before. You know that the only things we do at these parties are drinking, smoking, talking about girls, the latest shoes, clothes, and phones. Those discussions are not good for me anymore. They will make my heart dirty if I keep listening to them. That's why I have decided to keep away.

Fred: Hmn, you do have a point there. To be honest, whenever I attend the parties, I feel a kind of pressure to get the latest phone. I drink and dance so much I don't get enough sleep.

Michael: That explains your tiredness on a Monday morning.

Fred: Don't start (he laughs and pats Michael at the back). But honestly, I want to have your kind of new life. You sound so peaceful and content. And you've got plenty of time to do better things with your life.

Michael: If you accept Jesus as your personal Lord and Saviour, He will give you a new life. He will help you make right choices and spend your time well. I can pray with you. Do you want to do that now?

SCENE 1 CONTD.

Fred: Yes, I want to. Please pray with me.

(Both hold hands and pray silently while the narrator concludes the story).

Narrator: Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new (2 Corinthians 5:17).

When Jesus becomes our friend, He gives us a new life. He makes us new.

THE END.
