

WELCOME HOME

Kyle appeared in the news pleading for people to help him reunite with his family. "I want my family back, please help me find my family. Mum, if you are listening to this, please forgive me. I want to come home. I miss you so much", Kyle said, sobbing.

I broke down in tears. I couldn't believe it. Kyle left home 10 years ago to live on his own even though he was not ready. He started staying with friends but ended up being homeless. Many times, I had tried to get him to come home but he kept running away. I called the news agency and Kyle returned home. "I'm sorry Mum", he said. "Welcome home!", I replied. Sometimes, we act like we don't need God.

Like we can do life on our own. But many times, we discover that we need someone that deeply loves us, understands, and accepts us for who we are. God is the one you are longing for. He is the only one who loves you deeply, cares for you and accepts you without condemnation. “For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved” (John 3:17).

Are you running away from God? Please return to him now. “Come now, and let us reason together, says the LORD, “though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool” (Isaiah 1:18).

Sin keeps you away from God. To be free from sin, you need to believe that Jesus can save you from sin. Jesus died and rose again to set you free. Confess your sins to Him. ‘For whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved’ (Romans 10:13).
