As I watched Andrew's body being laid to rest, an empty feeling overwhelmed me. I wondered, "did Andrew really make his life count?", He had died from a terrible car accident after getting drunk. Now, he's gone – forever.

The bible tells us that "...it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27). This means that you have only one life to live here on earth, and after you die, you will be judged for what you did with your life. The only way to make your life count is to make choices that will lead you to eternal life with God.

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil” (John 3:16-19).

Today, God is calling you to choose life (Deuteronomy 30:19). This was why He sent His Son, Jesus – so you could have abundant life, both here and after death.

You will have abundant life if you believe and ask. Give Jesus a chance in your life today.
