SCENE 1

(Narrator: It is a living room setting. Alice and Kate are seated on a sofa/couch and discussing)

Alice: Hey Kate, how about our group assignment? Have you found a case study yet?

Kate: Er... not yet, but I have been thinking about it. I’ll come up with something before the deadline.

Alice: Well, you better do (pokes Kate lightly on her shoulder) You know everyone is looking up to you for this assignment. Otherwise, we will all be getting a bad result.

Kate: Why is everyone looking up to me? I thought it was a group assignment and we were all supposed to contribute?

Alice: Well, in theory, yes, everyone is supposed to contribute. But you know in practice, it is not usually the case. Everyone seems to have something more urgent to do until a day before the deadline and then, they will all start panicking.

Kate: Including you? (smiles)

SCENE 1 CONTD.

Alice: I'm hoping to do better. (shakes her head) I'm hoping to do better.

Kate: Let's talk about something else. I am planning to travel and spend time with my mum during the next holiday. What will you be doing during the holiday?

Alice: I don't know yet. I really don't know yet. Maybe I'll get a job or something.

(The two friends pause for a short time).

Alice: Can I ask you a question?

Kate: Sure, what is it?

Alice: I really admire you

Kate: Thanks, but that's not a question? (smiles)

Alice: I know (sips a drink) I was wondering; how do you manage to compose yourself so well?

Kate: How do you mean?

Alice: Kate, we used to be in the same Red Angels Club some years ago. We used to do wild dances, go to night clubs, smoke, and even do drugs.

Kate: Yes, I remember. How can I forget? But we both left that life when we almost lost our lives after drinking and driving.

Alice: You have obviously left that life. I can't say that about myself.

Kate: What do you mean, Alice? You have already asked Jesus to be your personal Lord and Saviour. You now have a new life. Have you forgotten?

Alice: Maybe I have left that life. But that life has not left me. I constantly struggle with the things we did in our past. I struggle to forgive myself even when I know that God has forgiven me. Sometimes, I doubt if God truly forgave me.

Kate: (puts an arm around Alice) That must be tough for you, Alice.

Alice: Yes. Every time I think about my past, I feel so dirty, angry at myself and I regret all I did over and over again.

SCENE 1 CONTD.

Kate: Alice, you are dealing with guilt. Guilt is the voice that wants to condemn you. It is the voice that speaks lies and tells you that you can never be forgiven, that you can never be free from your past. Listen, when you asked Jesus to forgive you and to be your Lord and Saviour, He forgave you completely. He then put His righteousness on you like a clean garment. He looks at you like you had never done anything wrong.

Alice: I know but it is hard to believe sometimes.

Kate: Alice, you need faith to overcome your doubt and guilt. Faith in what Jesus did on the cross. Faith in His word and promises that if you confess, He forgives. You have a brand-new life. Don't let guilt about your past rob you of the joy that Jesus has given you.

Alice: Please pray for me. I really need joy and peace in my heart. I want that faith that shuts down guilt.

Kate: Of course, my friend, I will pray with you. Let me quickly remind you that the devil is the source of this guilt. He will repeatedly try to make you doubt God's love and forgiveness. He is a liar and should be treated as a liar. Let us pray.

(Alice and Kate hold hands to pray as the narrator concludes the scene).

Narrator: There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. Romans 8:1-2.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9.

With faith in Jesus, you can overcome the voice of guilt. Whoever Jesus has set free is free indeed.

THE END.
