I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go into the house of the LORD.”

Psalm 122:1

You will show me the path of life;
In Your presence is fullness of joy;
At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.
Psalm 16:11

I woke up on Sunday morning feeling ready for the day. Last night, I put my costume in my bag so that I would not forget to take it with me in the morning.

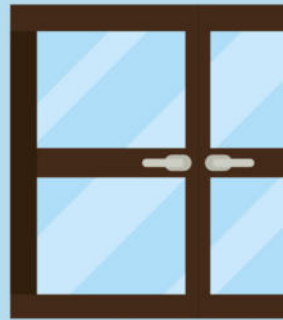

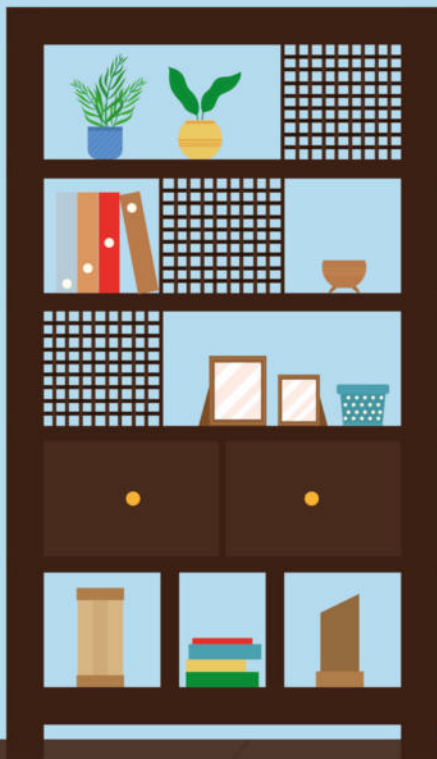

At church today, I will be acting in a stage drama titled, “And who is my neighbour?”

I quickly checked the time. It was 8:10a.m. The bus will be arriving at 8:45am. “Oh no! I might run late if I do not start preparing now.”

I did not want to miss acting as Vincent, the boy who was injured and needed help.

Quickly, I changed into some clean clothes.

Then, I went to the kitchen to prepare breakfast.

I added some cereal, a handful of blueberries and few slices of banana into a bowl. Then, I poured in a cup of warm milk.

I quickly ate my breakfast.

Next, I went to the bathroom to brush my teeth.

I thought about my friends at church who would be acting in the drama too.

Brandon, Darren, and Barbara will be acting as passersby who did not stop to help someone in need.

Wow, I cannot wait to meet everyone!

Finally, I washed my face.

Our teacher told us that we would have a picnic after the stage drama.

He wanted us to have some fun as a team after weeks of practice.

Beep, beep. Is that the bus arriving at the bus stop?

I quickly grabbed my backpack and ran out of the door.

Mum was outside watering the garden.

“Hello Mum. I’m prepared for my stage drama today and I hope you can make it in time to watch me and my friends” I said.

“I need to go now, bye Mum!”

Mum looked a bit confused.

“Wait, Richard!” Mum called.

I quickly turned around, hoping she wouldn't take much of my time.

“Today is Saturday!” she said.

“Your stage drama is on Sunday, not Saturday,” Mum continued.

I felt a bit confused.

“Oh no, tomorrow is Sunday, not today!” I exclaimed.

“I know you are very excited about this stage drama at church, but you have to wait till tomorrow,” Mum said.

“Yes, Mum, I understand,” I said.

I went back into the house hoping today would go by quickly.

About the book.

Richard woke up one morning very excited about acting in a stage drama with some of his friends at church. He quickly prepared for the day and rushed out of the house. But why could he not act in the stage drama on that day?

The book, No drama on Saturday, is an interesting, easy to read, and funny little story. Kids will love the bold and colourful illustrations on each page.
