SCENE 1

(Narrator: It is a classroom setting. Students are having lunch and happily chatting to one another except Josh)

Dennis: (turns to Andrew) Did you make that sandwich or did your Mum make it for you?

Andrew: Oh, I prepared my lunch today, though Mum gave me the ingredients and explained how to put it together. I had fun preparing my own lunch. What about you?

Dennis: My Mum made me some chicken salad. You know I love eating chicken salad. I could eat it for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. (The two friends laugh)

Andrew: Yes, I know. But you also need to eat other types of food to have a complete diet.

SCENE 1 CONTD.

Dennis and Andrew: And grow strong and healthy (laughs again).

Dennis: That's what my Mum tells me.

Andrew: Er...Dennis. I have been looking over at the new boy, Josh. He's been sitting alone all week. Do you mind inviting him over to join us? Or we can go over there to join him?

Dennis: I don't think that's a good idea. He doesn't look like we are on the same level. I mean, he looks like a poor kid. He will find someone like him to be friends with, I'm sure.

Andrew: Why would you say that about Josh?. He might look poor but remember, God created him just like He created us too. His family might be having a hard time now, but I tell you, it's not going to last. Things will change for them.

Dennis: (claps his hands) Ha-ha. You seem to know so much about Josh and his poor family. You can leave me alone and join your poor new friend.

Andrew: I can't believe you. Well, I am not leaving you. You are still my friend. But I am going to make someone happy. I pray you understand that God wants us to be kind to everyone, no matter their background or status.

(Andrew walks over to Josh, while Dennis continues eating alone).

SCENE 2

Andrew: Hello Josh. Can I sit beside you?

Josh: Yes, sure. How did you know my name?

Andrew: Why are you so surprised? You are my classmate and I have heard several teachers call your name.

Josh: Yes, that's true. It's just that sometimes I feel invisible – like no one sees me. Even when I try to make friends, it's like no one wants to talk to me. Everyone is in a hurry to get away from me.

SCENE 2 CONTD.

Andrew: Oh, I am so sorry you feel that way and have experienced that. I can assure you, not everyone is like that. Can we be friends?

Josh: For real? Why not? I mean, yes!

Andrew: Here, you can have an apple and some grapes (gives Josh an apple).

Josh: Thank you. Did you know I love eating apples? It's just that my parents cannot buy them for me as often as I want. But I am happy with whatever they give me.

Andrew: Yes, sometimes, we don't have what we want. But I believe God will always provide what we need.

Josh: That's so true. What we want can be different from what we need. (They both laugh).

(Just then, Dennis interrupts them, bringing his chair with him).

Dennis: I see you guys are having fun. Can I join in?

Andrew: (looks at Dennis in surprise) For real?

Dennis: Yes, for real. It's the right thing to do.

(Andrew and Dennis hug each other. Dennis shakes Josh. They all sit, eat and chat happily).

Narrator: "When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left.

SCENE 2 CONTD.

Narrator continues: Then the King will say to those on His right hand, ‘Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me’ (Matthew 25:31-36).

Let us be kind like Jesus. Let us love everyone no matter their background, status, or anything.

THE END.
